

Membership of the Board Elections/Appointments

Each SERDC First Nations will select, through election or appointment a designated Board Member. Each First Nation community shall acknowledge their member representative whose name shall be forwarded to either the Board Chairperson or the Director/Principal. If other First Nations are to participate in Board meetings as ex-officio members because of enrollment, they shall not have voting rights and shall be responsible for their own expenses when attending any board meetings.

Board members are elected /appointed and the time served on the board shall be at the discretion of each community. Each First Nation has the authority to appoint their representative without question from other communities.
