

POLICY # E.2.A

Workers Compensation

An employee who suffers a workplace injury is eligible for workers' compensation through The Workers' Compensation Act. Workers' Compensation benefits are designed to replace an employee's wages and are governed by the Act and its regulations.

In addition to Workers' Compensation, SEC provides additional benefits to employees who suffer a workplace injury. These benefits are outlined in the attached procedure.

Note that teachers are covered under SEC policy as per Workers Compensation regulations.
