

Supervision and Evaluation - Support Staff

SEC believes that one factor in providing a high quality educational and living environment for students is the ongoing supervision and evaluation of support staff. Support staff are all of those who are not classified as teachers.

Therefore, SEC will:

- Reaffirm job expectations as provided in the employee's job description,
- Provide objective feedback to the employee regarding ongoing job performance,
- Provide time and assistance to facilitate improvement for staff experiencing difficulty,
- Provide opportunities for professional learning.
- Standards testing for lodge and kitchen
