

Respectful Workplace

A respectful workplace is a workplace where employees and students feel safe, are treated fairly, and where there exists a climate of understanding and mutual respect.

Respectful workplaces provide environments which encourage positive relationships, and increased student and staff successes.

SEC is committed to maintaining such environments. It is the responsibility of all employees to conduct themselves in a manner which supports respectful workplaces

| | |
|-----------------------------|----------------------------------|
| Adoption Date: August 21/12 | Revision Date: December 14, 2017 |
|-----------------------------|----------------------------------|