

Reporting Student Progress

Reporting student progress is an essential part of the instruction and evaluation process. To be effective, reporting must be ongoing and provide meaningful feedback to the student and parent/guardian in order to enable further student growth and development.

The school follows Manitoba Education requirements for reporting to parents. Reporting methods can include student portfolios, formal and informal parent/teacher conferences, report cards, and other written reports.

Adoption Date: August 21/12	Revision Date:
-----------------------------	----------------